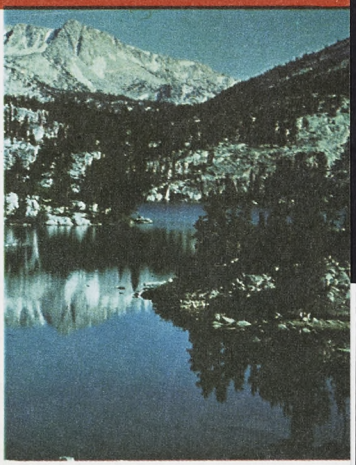
America's Most Unique and Diversified Recreation and Scenic Area



Golden

Mt. Whitney

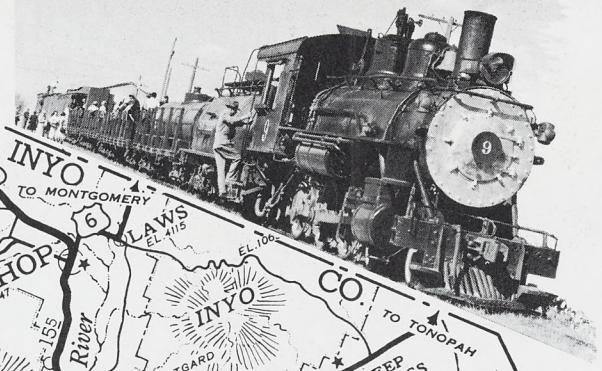
Bristlecone Pine

High Sierra Lake

Old West Ranch Life

Snow Flowers

Land of Death Valley — Mt. Whitney — Ancient Bristlecone Pines — Deepest Valley — Palisade Glacier



Slim Princess

Land of the Unusual

World's oldest living trees . . . ancient Bristlecone Pines, more than 4000 years old. World's largest star listening center near Big Pine. The world-famous soaring center, home of "Sierra wave" where most world gliding altitude records were set. Palisade Glacier, southern-most glacier in U. S. Death Valley, lowest point in U. S.—279 feet below sea level. Mt. Whitney, 14,496 feet, highest in 49 U. S. States. Alabama Hills, where hundreds of movie and TV films have been made!

All of these in ONE AREA!

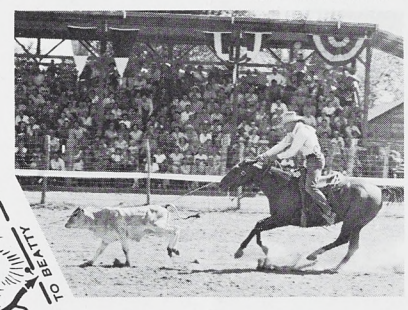
Desert Vistas

High Country



Old West Rodeos

Hub of Vast Scenic Area

Within easy driving distances are Reno-Tahoe, Las Vegas, Virginia City, Bodie, Yosemite Natl. Park, Tonopah, Goldfield, High Country of Mono county, desert mining towns of Darwin, Panamint, Skidoo, Death Valley.—Enjoy Old West atmosphere in fairs, rodeos, branding, ranch activities. Visit trout hatcheries. See historical relics at Death Valley Museum or at Eastern California Museum at Inyo Courthouse, Independence. See narrow-gauge engines. Plan trips with your rock or camera clubs. Golf, relax under blue skies. Swim in natural hot springs or community plunges. See volcanic craters, flows, petroglyphs. Enjoy roadside parks.

FORESTS - PARKS - MONUMENTS

Inyo National Forest, Death Valley National Park, Sequoia Kings National Park, Ancient Bristlecone Pine Forest.

All Year Vacationland

IN SPRING—Desert flowers in full bloom. Enjoy the sun while exploring the desert country. Death Valley . . . ghost towns . . . old mines . . . historic landmarks . . . prospecting . . . petroglyphs. Grand opening of regular trout season.

IN SUMMER—By foot . . . by car . . . by pack train . . . or plane. Discover high country lakes, miles of streams. View peaks over 14,000 ft. Stand on top of Mt. Whitney. Fish and explore the streams and lakes of the High Country. Take a pack trip into the heart of the Sierras. Stay at a motel, lodge or resort in a choice location . . . as your vacation center. Swim, golf, or go boating. Join the fun at fairs and rodeos.

IN AUTUMN—Hunt . . . where there's plenty of room. Explore ghost towns, charcoal kilns, look for Indian artifacts. Photograph or paint foliage in full fall color. Have an Indian Summer vacation. Attend Death Valley '49er Days. Fall fly fishing at its best.

IN WINTER—Ski on top of Sierra slopes. Best of snow and accommodations. Explore Death Valley, golf, swim, relax in the sun. Enjoy winter trout fishing in Owens River. Wind-up of hunting season.

FISHING AND HUNTING

All-year trout fishing in Owens River. Scores of smaller well-stocked streams . . . and High-Country Lakes. Home of the golden trout. Dove, quail, pheasant, duck, geese, chukar, deer hunting. Home of the Tule Elk.

Alabama Hills — Nature's Movie Set

Golfing in Wintertime!

Thumbnail information:

Special events:

Death Valley Encampment, Lone Pine Stampede, Tri-County Fair and Rodeo, Rainbow Day, Independence Day. Check your Auto Club or All-Year Club of So. Calif. offices for dates.

Tours:

Petroglyphs Tours, Eastern Museum Tours.

Golf Courses:

Lone Pine, Death Valley, Bishop.

FOR THE FLYERS

Paved Airports and Airstrips
World-Famous Soaring Center

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Write community chambers of commerce in any Inyo town, your favorite auto club or travel agency

PACKING INFORMATION

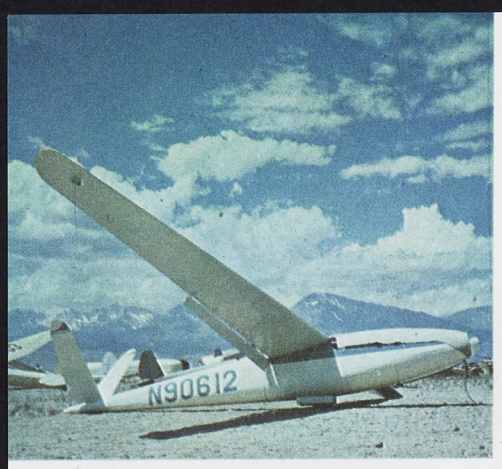
Write Packers Assn., Box 147, Bishop.

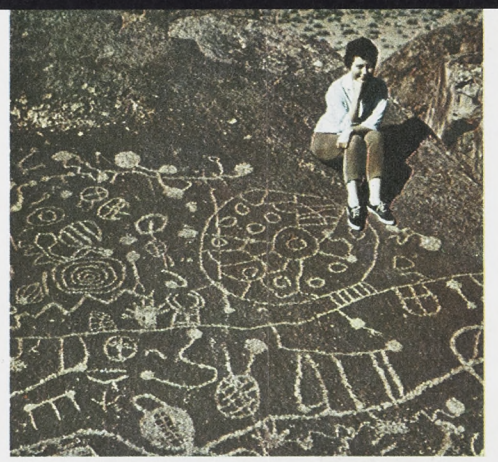
THIS FOLDER—authorized by Inyo County Board of Supervisors.

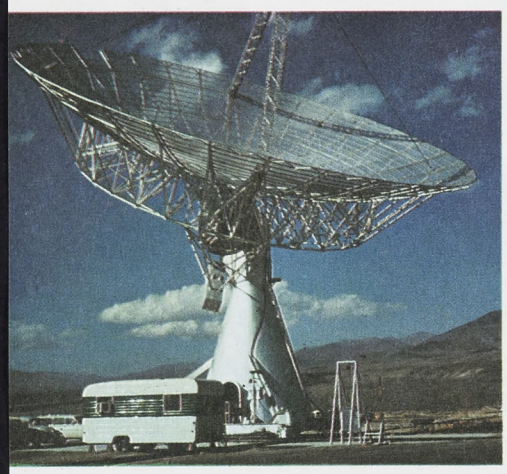
Photos courtesy All-Year Club of So. Calif.; Frasher's Fotos; Bob Brackett, L. A. Dept. Water & Power; Bill Zantiny, Inyo National Forest, Anne Johnson, Frank Colby, Tom Henderson, Union Pacific, Chalfant Press, Phillips Camera Shop.

Sand Dunes

Charcoal Kilns







Star Listening

Soaring at Its Best

Indian Heritage

High Country Pack Train

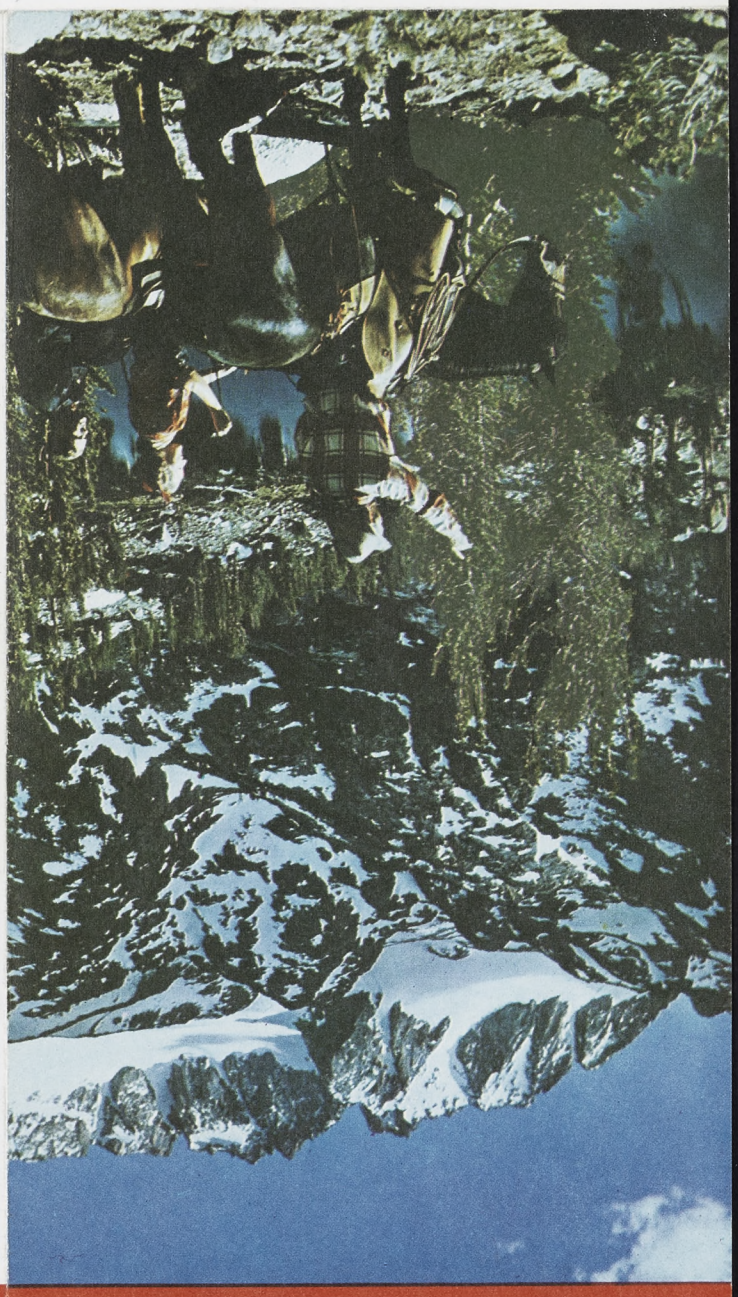
Signs of Spring

Petroglyphs

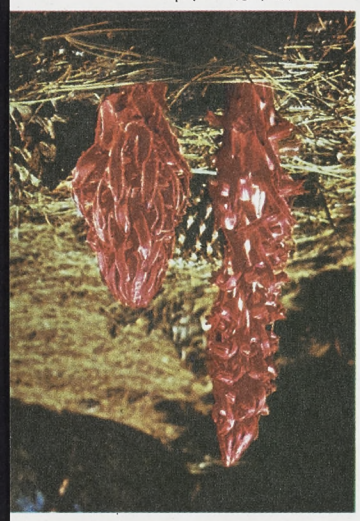
Twenty Mule Team

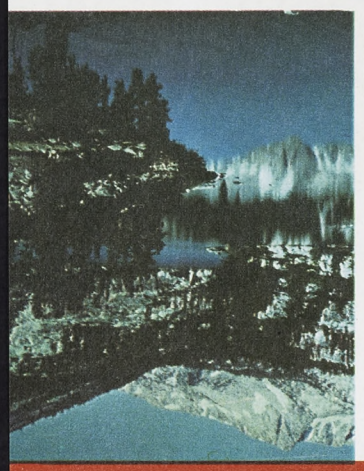
Fall Coloring

Golden
Mt. Whitney
Bristlecone Pine



High Sierra Lake
Old West Ranch Life
Snow Flowers





INYO COUNTY

Gateway to California's
All Year Vacationland

INYO COUNTY

Gateway to California's
All Year Vacationland

America's Most Unique and Diversified Recreation and Scenic Area

Gateway to California's
All Year Vacationland

INYO COUNTY